PPS Earn $3.01 Billion at DSRIP Halfway Mark

The NYS Department of Health this week announced that Performing Provider Systems (PPS) have earned a total of $3.01 billion to date. This equates to 95% of all possible funds. This report brings to a close the second quarter of DSRIP Year 3 (DY3), which ended on September 30, 2017, and marks the completion of the half-way mark for DSRIP.

PPS have also successfully met all state and/or PPS implementation requirements for 13 projects in DY3, Q2, bringing the total number of complete projects to 44.

“These results show that PPS across the State are performing as designed and patient outcomes are clearly improving,” according to the DOH. The next PPS payments will be determined following the completion of DY3, Q4 on March 31, 2018.

Update on BPHC Innovation Fund

BPHC is currently on schedule in the review of our Innovation Fund proposals and projected announcement later this month.

In this second phase of our Innovation Fund program (our first phase took place last summer), we have received 31 proposals from 22 unique BPHC member organizations.

We are encouraged by the level of interest in the Innovation Fund and look forward to launching our projects. We will continue to keep you updated on our timeline.
